

Safeguarding Children Policy

January 2012

Safeguarding Children

Safeguarding children and safer recruitment in education defines safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children as:

- protecting children from maltreatment
- preventing impairment of children's health or development
- ensuring that children are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care
- undertaking that role so as to enable those children to have optimum life chances and to enter adulthood successfully.

This definition makes it clear that safeguarding is not just about protecting children from deliberate harm. It includes issues such as:

- student health and safety
- bullying
- racist abuse
- ensuring positive attendance and punctuality
- meeting the needs of students with medical conditions
- providing first aid
- drug and substance misuse
- school security

In some instances, schools have specific statutory responsibilities which must be satisfied. For example, failure to keep a log of racist incidents can be seen as a failure to protect the victims of such incidents.

Burnage Media Arts College Safeguarding Policy is based on Manchester Children's Services Model Safeguarding Policy September 2008

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This policy has been developed to ensure that all adults in Burnage Media Arts College are working together to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people. This policy has been ratified by the Governing Body at its meeting on 23/01/12 and will be reviewed in the November 2013.
- 1.2 This policy describes the management systems and arrangements in place to create and maintain a safe learning environment for all our children, young people and staff. It identifies actions that should be taken to redress any concerns about child welfare.
- 1.3 The Headteacher or, in their absence, the authorised member of staff, Jacqueline Hill (Deputy Headteacher), has the ultimate responsibility for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people.
- 1.4 Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people goes beyond implementing basic child protection procedures. It is an integral part of all activities and functions of Burnage Media Arts College. This policy complements and supports other relevant policies (Appendix A).
- 1.5 Under the Education Act 2002 schools/settings have a duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of their students and, in accordance with guidance set out in 'Working Together to Safeguard Children', Burnage Media Arts College will work in partnership with other organisations where appropriate to identify any concerns about child welfare and take action to address them.

2. ETHOS

- 2.1 Burnage Media Arts College aims to create and maintain a safe learning environment where all children and adults feel safe, secure and valued and know they will be listened to and taken seriously. Our school is committed to 'Every Child Matters' and implements policies, practices and procedures which promote safeguarding and the emotional and physical well being of children, young people and staff (Appendix C).
- 2.2 The Continuum of Needs and Response to those needs and the Common Assessment Framework CAF is embedded into everyday practice and procedures when these interventions are considered to be the appropriate response to children's needs. The children have access to appropriate curriculum opportunities, including emotional health and well being, to support the development of the skills needed to help them stay safe and healthy, develop their self-esteem and understand the responsibilities of adult life, particularly in regard to child care and parenting skills.
- 2.3 Access to cross-curricular and Enrichment activities will provide opportunities to develop self-esteem and self-motivation and to help students respect the rights of others, particularly those groups who may be considered a minority or vulnerable to disaffection or alienation.

3. THE CURRICULUM

- 3.1 All children have access to an appropriate curriculum, differentiated to meet their needs. This enables them to learn to develop the necessary skills to build self-esteem, respect others, defend those in need, resolve conflict without resorting to violence, question and challenge and to make informed choices in later life.
- 3.2 Children and young people are encouraged to express and discuss their ideas, thoughts and feelings through a variety of activities and have access to a range of cultural opportunities which promote respect and empathy for others. There is access to information and materials from a diversity of sources which promote social, spiritual and moral well-being and physical and mental health.
- 3.3 Personal Social and Health Education, Citizenship, Religious studies and Form Time lessons will provide opportunities for children and young people to discuss and debate a range of subjects including lifestyles, healthy choices, emotional health and wellbeing, forced marriage, family patterns, religious beliefs and practices and human rights issues.
- 3.4 All students will know that there are adults in the school whom they can approach in confidence if they are in difficulty or feeling worried and that their concerns will be taken seriously and treated with respect.

4. ATTENDANCE & EXCLUSIONS

- 4.1 In accordance with the Burnage Media Arts College Attendance Policy, absences are rigorously pursued and recorded. The school/setting, in partnership with the appropriate agencies, takes action to pursue and address all unauthorised absences in order to safeguard the welfare of children and young people in its care.
- 4.2 The Attendance Policy identifies how individual cases are managed and how we work proactively with parents to ensure that they understand the Common Assessment Framework (CAF), Parenting Contracts and responsibilities and legal proceedings that may be undertaken to encourage parents to ensure their child can access fully their educational entitlement.
- 4.3 We implement the statutory requirements in terms of monitoring and reporting children missing education (CME) and off-rolling and understand how important this practice is in safeguarding children and young people.
- 4.4 The school will only place young people in alternative educational provision which have been quality assured at present by Burnage Media Arts College and by the Local Authority once they have completed the process. Discussions will take place between the school and the alternative providers to ensure that the provision chosen for any student will meet their educational and social needs. Their attendance will be monitored by Burnage Media Arts College in accordance with the School Register Regulations.
- 4.5 The designated person will be informed when a fixed term or permanent exclusion is being discussed and any safeguarding issues will be considered. Where it is felt that a child or young person is likely to be permanently excluded a CAF will be considered if appropriate.

5. KEEPING RECORDS

- 5.1 Burnage Media Arts College will keep and maintain up to date information on children on the school roll including where and with whom the child is living, attainment, attendance, referrals to and support from other agencies and any other significant event in a child's life.

We aim to do this in partnership with our parents/carers. In most cases parents and carers will be informed when concerns are raised about the safety and welfare of their child. Parents and carers should be given the opportunity to address any concerns raised.

12.2 Following good practice guidance parent friendly meeting on transition and during year 7 will be available to parents and carers as will information about emotional health and well being lessons and the support that is available in school.

12.3 Parents and carers will be informed if a referral is to be made to the Children and Families Service or any other agency.

12.4 Parents/carers will not be informed if it is believed that by doing so would put the child at risk. In such cases the Designated Person or Headteacher will seek advice from the Children and Families Service's Initial Assessment Team.

Forced marriage is a form of child, adult and domestic abuse and, in line with statutory guidance, is treated as such by this school. Child abuse cannot be condoned for religious or cultural reasons.

13.2 Information about Forced Marriage will be incorporated into staff Safeguarding and Child Protection training and briefings and the school's Safeguarding and Child Protection Policies will be used to protect a victim or potential victim of forced marriage.

13.3 If a case of forced marriage is suspected, parents and carers may not be approached or involved about a referral to any other agencies. Agencies will be referred to so that the best interest of the young person / people can be assured.

14 CHILD PROTECTION CONFERENCES AND CORE GROUP MEETINGS

14.1 Relevant members of staff are likely to be asked to attend a child protection conference or other relevant core group meetings about an individual student and will need to have as much relevant updated information about the child as possible. A child protection conference will be held if it is considered that the child/children are suffering or at risk of significant harm.

14.2 All reports for a child protection conference should be prepared in advance of the meeting and will include information about the child's physical, emotional, intellectual development and well being as well as relevant family related issues. This information will be shared with the parents/carers.

16.1 Any concern or expression of disquiet made by a child will be listened to seriously and acted upon as quickly as possible to safeguard his or her welfare.

16.2 We will make sure that the child or adult who has expressed the concern or made the complaint will be informed not only about the action to be taken but also where possible about the length of time required to resolve the complaint. We will endeavour to keep the child or adult informed about the progress of the complaint/expression of concern.

17 SERIOUS CASE REVIEWS

17.1 The Manchester Safeguarding Children Board will always undertake a serious case review when a child or young person dies (including death by suicide) and abuse or neglect is known or suspected to be a factor in their death. The purpose of the serious case review is to:

17.2 Find out if there are any lessons to be learnt from the case about how local professionals and agencies work together to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people.

17.3 Identify what those lessons are, how they will be acted on and what is expected to change as a result of the serious case review.

17.4 Improve inter-agency working to better safeguard and promote the welfare of children and young people.

17.5 If required Burnage Media Arts College will provide an individual management report for a serious case review and will cooperate fully with implementing outcomes of the review including reviewing policy, practice and procedures as required.

This policy has been ratified by the Governing Body at its meeting on 23/01/12 and will be reviewed in November 2013

Significant Harm

The threshold that justifies compulsory intervention in family life and gives Local Authorities a duty to make enquiries to decide whether they should take action to safeguard or promote the welfare of a child who is suffering or likely to suffer significant harm.

Physical Abuse

Physical abuse may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces an illness in a child.

Emotional Abuse

Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to children that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond the child's developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying, causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, though it may occur alone.

Sexual Abuse

Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, including prostitution, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including penetrative (e.g. rape, buggery or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts. The activities may include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, sexual online images, watching sexual activities, or encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.

Neglect

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development.

Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse for example.

Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to:

- Provide adequate food and clothing, shelter (including exclusion from home or abandonment).
- Protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger.
- Ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate caretakers).
- Ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment.
- It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.
